

Genesis 3:1-6

Genesis 2:16-17

What we learn:

1. Satan has always desired to come between the husband and wife. He does here.
2. Satan will try to get to you through others. Even those closest to you.
3. Satan desires us to have a questioning spirit about God's word "Did God really say...?"
4. Satan wants us to question God's goodness. Satan appeals to the prohibition.

Genesis 3:4-5

5. Satan wants God's word to appear negative.

2 Timothy 3:16-17

Luke 11:28

John 6:63

How does Satan go about causing people to have a low view of God's word?

1. By attacking the Author.
2. By distorting the accuracy of God's word "You will not surely die" –
3. He blinds people to the consequences of unbelief in God's word.

Understand

1. Satan still seeks to distort God's word.
2. Satan will do all he can to get us away from knowing the word.
3. Satan desires us to think negatively of God's word.
4. Satan will seek to tempt us to disregard God's word on any matter.
5. Realize there will be people who want to drag you into sin.
6. Don't die in unbelief of the ultimate truth.
